

STORE OPENINGS

A definite hole-in-one for all fashion-minded golfers AceAddicted is the first shop dedicated entirely to the solo sport that has become a must for all movers and shakers. Inspired by his passion for the green tee, Marc le Graet has created a concept that offers the most sought after names in golf fashion. Indulge in the trendy look from London with J. Lindeberg, the more classic trousers and tops by Tommy Hilfinger or the funky, colourful Italian style from Par 72. You'll trade your cleets in a heartbeat for the stylish new 'golf shoes' from Beam. For the optimum in performance, it's not the player but the clubs that matter when it comes to owning a custom-designed pair of clubs from Option Golf, now offering limited amateur editions. www.ace-addicted.com

29 rue d'Anjou (8th) 01 42 68 12 51

Not far from the covered passages of the 2nd arrondissement is a treasure chest of the latest must-have items for women and girls. Lei is already a household name for the local ladies, but the secret is not yet out for the others. This small, yet elegant boutique offers a sharp selection of the trendiest cult brands. The shop's owner, Karim, takes great pride in hunting down only the most desirable items like fabulous tops from Virginie Castaway, terrific tunics from Soun, cool casuals from Bruuns Bazaar, silk and angora from Velvet and Graham & Spencer, and ballerinas from Great by Sandie. 36 rue des Petits-Champs (2nd) 01 42 61 12 40 - A S

